

FINDING MAIN Street

A BOOK CONVERSATION
WHAT I FOUND IN A THOUSAND TOWNS
BY DAR WILLIAMS

We build positive proximity through spaces in our towns, projects that strengthen our identity, and translation - our ability to incorporate every willing citizen's contributions.

THINK IN BRIDGES

HOST A BOOK CONVERSATION
BUILD POSITIVE PROXIMITY IN YOUR COMMUNITY

1. Get book discussion tools at VirginiaMainStreet.com.
2. Talk with your local library, bookstore or other partner about hosting a book group.
3. Gather to discuss the book chapter-by-chapter or pick chapters most relevant to your community, exploring example communities from around the country. Watch videos of Main Street communities exploring the ideas in Virginia.
4. Identify new projects, partners, or underused spaces that can help you build positive proximity.
5. Share your own stories at VirginiaMainStreet.com.
6. Pitch book-inspired projects for potential funding at Downtown Intersections in July 2019.

Let's talk. Contact Virginia Main Street staff or Doug Jackson at 540-529-4879, douglas.jackson@dhcd.virginia.gov.
