

VIRTUAL

Main Street Idea Pitch!

November 17, 2020

Do you have an idea for a new Main Street revitalization project you would like to start? Are you positive it is something that will be a slam-dunk success? Then you will not want to miss Virginia Main Street's third annual Main Street Idea Pitch competition.

Event Info

Main Street Idea Pitch is a downtown revitalization idea competition typically held during Virginia Main Street's Downtown Intersections conference. Due to public health considerations, the 2020 Main Street Idea Pitch competition will be a virtual event on the morning of November 17 and will culminate with the winner announcement shortly after.

The Main Street Idea Pitch competition is geared towards stimulating the Virginia Main Street network of communities and professionals to craft imaginative Main Street project ideas. Projects should:

1. Connect to the community's vision to create vibrant, people-centered places to live, work, and invest.
2. Support any of the four key areas that Main Street programs have been using as a guiding framework for over 35 years: Economic Vitality, effective Promotion, quality Design, and sustainable Organization.
3. Focus on highly visible changes, measuring progress and results that demonstrate the revitalization effort is under way and succeeding.

Potential project ideas can include, but are not limited to:

- Non-profit organizational development
- Market studies and strategy development
- Downtown organization website development
- Design and place-making projects
- Entrepreneur support programs
- Buy local and extended store hours programs

Email mainstreet@dhcd.virginia.gov for any questions regarding the Main Street Idea Pitch.

Prizes

- $5,000 minimum prize to be distributed at judges' discretion
- All unfunded finalists receive Virginia Main Street staff technical assistance to help make the project competitive for either a Virginia Main Street Downtown Investment Grant or a DHCD Commercial District Affiliate grant for FY22 rounds, as applicable.

How Do I Enter?

Complete entry requirements are listed further down the page. Those interested in participating in the pitch completion must meet three (3) basic requirements:

1. Virginia Main Street Designated Communities or DHCD Commercial District Affiliates are eligible. From all of the applicants submitted, the judges will select five (5) finalists who will then move on to present their downtown revitalization project idea during the live Main Street Idea Pitch the morning of November 17.
2. Must be active in the Virginia Main Street network as of the date the application is submitted. "Active" is defined as, within the last year, a community representative contacted a Virginia Main Street representative for technical assistance or attended a Virginia Main Street training, such as the Regional Rev Ups, webinars, or Downtown Intersections.
3. Must complete the online application process as outlined below.

Event Schedule

11:00 AM	Pitch Competition
1:00 PM	Winner Announced

Entry Requirements and Competition Process

1. To enter the competition, complete and submit the online entry form to mainstreet@dhcd.virginia.gov, found on the last two pages of this announcement.
2. The deadline for entries is 5 PM, September 18.
3. The pitch committee will review all submissions and select five (5) finalists, who will move on to the live presentation round. We will announce semi-finalists on Friday, October 2.
4. Finalists will present their complete project idea pitch, not to exceed 5 minutes, on Tuesday, November 17, 11 AM.
5. This is an individual pitch, not a group presentation. Presenters may represent a Main Street organization or community, but only one person can pitch.
6. A panel of outside experts and the audience will judge the final presentations. One (1) finalist will be awarded the prize. The decisions of the judging panel are final.

Making a Main Street Idea Pitch

Pitching an idea for a new Main Street revitalization project means telling the story of your proposal to a variety of potential audiences – donors, potential partners, volunteers and others. The “perfect pitch” is a concise, well-rehearsed presentation that motivates, persuades, and compels your audience to support your community vision. Communicate “why” – the purpose, cause or belief. It is the very reason your organization exists. In a real world pitch to a potential donor, your goal in a brief presentation is to generate sufficient interest to move on to the next step in getting funding for your idea. Think of it as your American Idol initial audition. Your goal is to get that golden ticket to the next round in Hollywood.

Like learning a song for the first time, preparing your pitch is all about practice and repeated rehearsal. Like a song, your 5 minutes of “lyrics” should paint a compelling story, engaging your audience through a concise look at your proposed new project. For a Main Street organization launching a new project, perfecting your presentation style and substance is an essential skill for Main Street success.

Emphasis should be on the following key areas:

- Introduce yourself and the name of your organization and community.
- Explain specifically what problem or need your organization will solve or satisfy.
- Provide an overview of the services your organization will offer.
- State clearly whom your potential audience or customers are and how you propose to reach them.
- Note how much money you will need to launch your project and how you intend to raise it.
- At the end of your presentation, be prepared to answer questions from the judges.

Technical Considerations:

- Finalists must submit their presentations one (1) week prior to the event. You may use slides and other audio-visual aids. At a minimum, each presenter must have one (1) title slide with the name of the organization, idea, and name of the presenter. The presenter may not include more than ten (10) slides.
- To participate virtually, finalists will need access to a high-speed internet connection; a laptop or desktop computer with the Adobe Connect app downloaded; and a webcam. A headset of some sort is recommended.

Judging and Award

1. The judging panel for the initial application review and elevator pitches will consist of DHCD staff. Judges for the final presentations include a panel of community development experts.
2. Judges will score each presentation based on your presentation of the key elements noted above, according to the following criteria:
 - Were each of the key elements clearly presented?
 - Did the presentation conform to the five (5) minute time limitation?
 - Was the presenter well-rehearsed and presented his/her pitch without using notes?
 - Did the presenter clearly demonstrate the need for the proposed project or services?
 - Does the presenter have the knowledge and expertise to start and complete the proposed project?
 - Is the proposed project feasible? Does it have the needed financial resources and can it be completed within a year?
 - Did the presenter communicate what success looks like?
3. The prize will be awarded to one (1) pitch, as determined by the judges. Details regarding specific prizes will be posted once all have been confirmed.
4. Winners will be announced the same day at 1 PM.
